A leisurely 3 to 4 hour tour includes 2+ hours riding time and 1+ hours for lunch, shopping and exploring. Note: it is illegal to ride bikes on the sidewalk.

Bike Safe!

Proceed through streets and intersections carefully. Be courteous of pedestrians and don't forget water and sunscreen. For safety and comfort, wear your helmet and comfortable clothing. Obey all laws and enjoy!

Turn by Turn Directions

- 1 Start on Bike Path at Huntington City Beach Parking Lot. Head south along bike path towards Huntington State Beach (away from the pier).
- 2 Ride approximately 3 miles and cross over bridge continuing on the path.
- 3 Veer left and follow the bike path up onto the Pacific Coast Hwy and cross the bridge.
- 4 Turn right at Orange St., then make your first left onto Seashore Dr.
- 5 Turn right on 36th St. then left onto the bike path along the beach.
- 6 Just before the Newport Pier, bear right on the bike path and ride through the parking lot to rejoin the bike path past the pier plaza at the end after the pier.
- 7 After passing Balboa Pier, continue on the bike path to B St. (end at Peninsula Park). Turn around and ride back the way you came to 36th St.
- 8 Turn Right on 36th St., then left on Seashore Dr.
- 9 Turn right onto Orange St., then left onto the sidewalk on the left side of Pacific Coast Hwy.
- 10 Immediately after the bridge, continue straight to rejoin the Huntington Beach Bike Trail back the way you came to Wheel Fun Rentals. We hope you enjoyed your tour!

A POINTS OF INTEREST

(see map for location)

A. Huntington State Beach

This family friendly beach is connected to Huntington City Beach, popular for bicycling, surfing, body boarding, skating and surf fishing. The beach also has fire rings for bonfires. At the southern end, across Pacific Coast Highway, are the Huntington Beach Wetlands, operated by the Department of Fish and Game.

B. Huntington Beach Pier

Built in 1904, the pier has been a fixture for over 100 years and is the most visited landmark in town. Check out Tower Zero, a state-of-the-art lifeguard tower posting water temperatures, wave conditions and other information regularly. The U.S. Open Surfing Competition is held here every July.

C. Huntington Beach Main Street

Over 50 places to dine and shop! You'll see swimsuits, surfboards, people walking dogs, cars, bicycle and lots of smiles. The perfect place to enjoy an hour or a day.

D. International Surfing Museum

While visiting Surf City USA, be sure to visit the International Surfing Museum. Half a block down Olive Street off Main Street you will find the museum, which highlights the surfing culture and showcases nearly a century of the best surf memorabilia that Surf City has to offer. Every aspect of the surfing culture is represented here with displays, concerts, catalogued surf artifacts, surfboards, surfing films, surfing music and plenty of memorabilia.

E. Santa Ana River

The Santa Ana River begins almost 75 miles away in San Bernardino County, California, in the San Bernardino National Forest. It eventually reaches its end between Huntington Beach and Newport Beach, where it spills into the Pacific Ocean. Despite much of the river being channelized in recent times, it still represents one of the largest river systems in Southern California.

F. Newport Island

As you ride into Newport Beach, you are actually on an island in the Pacific Ocean. This island reflects the vibrant Southern California lifestyle, providing lavish views, golden sandy beaches and warm ocean breezes.

G. Newport Municipal Beach

Newport Beach offers fine, soft sand with plenty of room to enjoy yourself. Surfers, swimmers and sunbathers all bask in the warmth of beautiful Southern California winter and summer days. Pelicans and seagulls also enjoy the year round climate.

H. Newport Beach Pier

The pier is a whirlwind of activity. People of all ages flock here to enjoy the scenery, or visit shops and restaurants near the pier.

I. Balboa Pier/Balboa Beach

Balboa Beach is a friendly destination with a kids playground and sand lot, public restrooms and lots to see and do. Take the Balboa Ferry across the Bay to Balboa Island for shopping, eateries and more.

J. Peninsula Park

Near the Balboa Pier, this park is the perfect place to take a break. It has barbecues, picnic tables, benches, play area and swings, restrooms, gazebo with benches and checker boards, multipurpose athletic field, water fountains and great views of the ocean and beach.
